ESTABLISHED 1833. FORT WAYNE, IND., TUESDAY, DEC. 19, 1899. PRICE TWO CENTS.

GEN. LAWTON KILLED.

The Brilliant and Intrepid Fighter Slain in Front of His Troops at San Mateo.

A SPLENDID CAREER CLOSED IN GLORY.

Like a thrust to the heart comes the news that Major General Henry W. Lawton, Fort Wayne's brilliant and intrepid soldier, has been killed. General Lawton was slain at the head of his troops in an attack on San Mateo in the island of Luzon. The sad news first came to Fort Wayne this forenoon over The Sentinel's Associated Press wire in the following cable dispatch:

"Manila, Dec. 19.—Major General Henry W. Lawton has been shot and killed at San Mateo. He was standing in front of his troops, was shot in the breast and died immediately."

Last night's dispatches stated that General Lawton had started from Manila with cavalry under Captain

GENERAL HENRY W. LAWTON.

Lockett and battalions of the Twenty-ninth and Twenty-seventh infantry under Lieutenant Colonel Sargeant for the purpose of capturing San Mateo, where Geronomo, the Filipino leader was said to have 300 insurgents.

Grief is general and genuine throughout the city wherever it is known that General Lawton is dead. Fort Wayne felt honored that so brave a soldier and so brilliant an officer should have gone forth from this city. Among his old comrades of the Thirtieth Indiana regiment, which he once commanded in the civil war, there is the deep sorrow that comes from an acute sense of personal bereavement. Sion S. Bass post, G. A. R., has long been at work creating a subscription fund with which to purchase a testimonial sword to present to General Lawton upon his return from the Philippines. His brothers in Harmony lodge, I. O. O. F., also feel with painful keenness the death of their distinguished fellow.

General Lawton is well known personally to hundreds of Fort Wayne citizens, who remember him distinctly and have watched with much pride his renowned career. At the outbreak of the Spanish war it was General Lawton's ambition to obtain a brigadier generalship and be accredited to Indiana. President McKinley offered to appoint Lawton, but a storm of protest from the capital building at Indianapolis deprived Indiana of the honor the president sought to confer on this state and the appointment went to W. J. McKee. General Lawton hoped to command a brigade of Indiana soldiers in Cuba, and had he been accredited to this state, Indiana regiments would have shared in the glory of the victory at arms around Santiago, instead of putting in their service in the camps.

GRIEF IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon the war department had received no word of General Lawton's death except that conveyed in the Associated Press dispatches, which was given immediately to the war officials.

The president's first intimation of the loss of this brave officer was also given him by the Associated Press. The dispatch was sent to the white house while the cabinet meeting was in progress and was immediately sent to the cabinet room, where it was received with expressions of profound sorrow and regret.

It was learned at the war department that instructions had been received last night from the president to prepare General Lawton's commission as a brigadier general in the regular army to fill one of the existing vacancies and the adjutant general's clerks were at work on the commission when the information of General Lawton's death was conveyed to the department.

GENERAL HARRISON GRIEVED.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 19.—In speaking of General Lawton, ex-President Harrison said:

"I had the highest appreciation of General Lawton as a soldier and citizen and his loss will be deeply felt by Indiana. He was heroic, courageous and we will miss him. It is distressing news, coming when the trouble in the Philippines is so near an end. It is too bad that he did not live to come home. Killed while in front of his troops. This would not indicate that he met death while in action. I do not think the sword which had been secured for him through popular subscription had been sent to him. I am sorry, indeed, to hear this distressing news. It is sad to think that such a deplorable loss should fall to Indiana, just now. He has been an honor to Indiana and others share in a most high appreciation of his distinguished military services in the Philippines. Killed as the news states would indicate treachery somewhere."

TOLD OF HIS LIFE.

General Lawton's brilliant military record in the civil war is well remembered by many of his former comrades in Fort Wayne, but when in the conflict with Spain he sprang anew into public prominence by his splendid military ability and his undaunted bravery in the operations around Santiago, there arose many conflicting stories concerning the personal history of this remarkable man.

To obtain an authentic biography of General Lawton, A. S. Covell, of this city, a member of Sion S. Bass post, G. A. R., addressed a letter to the general advising him of the purpose of his former comrades and Indiana citizens generally to present some token of their esteem for him as a man, and of their admiration for him as a soldier, requesting also such autobiographical information as the general might give concerning his life.

General Lawton's reply was printed in The Sentinel on September 23 last, and in it the general expresses in loftiest terms his appreciation of the kindly interest of his old comrades. Concerning the testimonial to be presented to him, General Lawton assures his comrades that their good opinion and good wishes are all that he desired. The portions of the letter of a biographical nature have an intensified interest in this mournful hour, and are here reproduced:

"My father resided in Fort Wayne, Indiana, long before I was born, he having come to Indiana at the time of the building of the Wabash and Erie canal. I was born, however, on the 17th day of March, 1843, at Manhattan, in the state of Ohio. Manhattan, now a suburb of Toledo, is the point near which the canal entered Lake Erie. Later my parents resided in Maumee City, Ohio, and it is there my first recollections began. I attended the primary schools at that place and at the age of seven years my father went to California, and I, with my mother, moved to Loraine county, Ohio; two years later, my father having returned from California, I went with him to the west, remaining something more than a year in Iowa and about one year in Missouri. In 1853 my father returned to Fort Wayne and I entered the Fort Wayne Methodist Episcopal college as a student. Since that time Fort Wayne has been my home. I remained at college until the breaking out of the war in April, 1861, when I enlisted in a company organized by Captain W. P. Segur, which became part of the Ninth Indiana volunteers. At the close of my term of service in that regiment I returned to Fort Wayne and immediately re-enlisted with Captain O. D. Hurd, whose company became part of the Thirtieth Indiana volunteers. At the close of the war I returned to Fort Wayne as colonel of that regiment, entered the office of Judge Ninde (Ninde & Taylor) to read law. In the summer of 1866, at the solicitation of Judge Ninde, I left his office to take a law course at Harvard university, at Cambridge, Massachusetts. I was a student at that institution when I received an appointment in the regular army, which I accepted.

"As I was appointed to the army from the state of Indiana and as I was at the time a citizen and resident of Fort Wayne, my military service should not affect my residence or citizenship, and I still remain a resident of Fort Wayne and a citizen of that state. I have a letter before me from G. W. Boerger, secretary of Harmony lodge No. 19, I. O. O. F., dated Fort Wayne, Indiana, February 24th, 1899, in which the following occurs:

"'I have a book before me in which you signed the constitution on the night of your initiation, and it reads, H. W. Lawton, residence, Fort Wayne, Ind., age, 21, occupation, soldier, date, March 24th, 1864. This makes you the oldest living member, etc.'

"So, you will observe, I was a citizen of Fort Wayne at the time of reaching my majority. The army register shows me appointed from Indiana and there is on file in the adjutant general's office various statements made by myself at different times, whenever my grade in the army has been changed, each of which reads, 'residence, Fort Wayne, Indiana.' I am also, as you know, a member of Sion S. Bass post, G. A. R., and I am also a member of Summit City lodge, F. & A. M., having joined that fraternity, I believe, the same year that I joined Harmony lodge of Odd Fellows, to-wit, 1864.

"I have never wavered in my allegiance to the state of Indiana and have never for a moment contemplated a change of residence. Fort Wayne, Indiana, is the only place where I could legally cast a vote or where I could have voted at any time since I attained my majority.

"I was married to Mary Craig near Louisville, Ky., in 1881; we have four children, one boy and three girls, all in good health and doing finely. I think you will find my name in a book giving a history of Allen county. I think this gives you all the information you desire and answers all your questions.

"I take great interest in the reunions of our old regiments and keep posted as well as I can concerning my old comrades. I have, therefore, heard of the death of many of them and feel often that the time is close at hand when I, too, must join the great majority as they go marching along.

"I saw a great deal of Hathaway when I was living at Washington. We were great friends and met frequently.

"Remember me very kindly to the other members of your committee, particularly to Captain Whittiker, and also to all other of my comrades and to any of my friends whom you may know or who may inquire about me, and believe me, that I sincerely appreciate the good will and good opinion of you all.

"Sincerely and fraternally yours,
"H. W. Lawton,
"Major General U. S. Vols."

To the facts set forth in the foregoing, the following relating to General Lawton's later career should be added:

He was successively promoted until March, 1865, he was breveted colonel for gallant and meritorious service during the war.

He entered the regular establishment in July, 1866, as second lieutenant of the Forty-first infantry (colored), and remained with that branch of the army until January, 1871.

In September, 1888, he was appointed inspector general, with the rank of major. At the opening of the war with Spain, when President McKinley appointed him brigadier of volunteers and assigned him to the command of a division of the Fifth army corps, commanded by General Shafter.

In July, 1898, he was chosen for the important duty of opening the military operations against the Spaniards by the capture of El Canel and the interception of the Spanish reinforcements, then nearing Santiago de Cuba.

His distinguished services in the Philippines are recent history. He received a special message of thanks

PERISH IN FLAMES

SIX INJURED LIKELY TO DIE

TWO TENEMENT HOUSE FIRES IN EARLY MORNING.

WOMEN HUNG FROM WINDOWS

BRAVELY RESCUED BY FIRE DEPARTMENT.

New York, Dec. 19.—Seven lives were lost in two big tenement houses which were destroyed by fire in this city early today. Five charred bodies were found on the upper floors of a burned tenement at One Hundred and Second street and Third avenue, known as the Mentor, and five women and a little girl, all badly burned, were carried from the blazing house to nearby hospitals. There is thought to be but slight chance of any of the six surviving.

Several other persons only escaped from the flames and dense smoke with cuts and bruises.

THE DEAD.

John Barrett, wife and daughter, Julia, the latter aged 6.

Woman, supposed to be Miss Annie Farrey.

Richard Nickerson, a mechanic of Cincinnati.

Adolph Schneider, one of the tenants of the building, reported to the police after the fire that his wife and daughter were missing.

THE INJURED.

Della O'Connell, 28.
Kate Farrey, 25.
Susan McAdee, 60.
Mary Barrett, 9.
Mamie Scary, 23.
Kate O'Connell, 26.

ANOTHER FIRE.

A few hours earlier a deadly fire attacked the five-story tenement on Tenth avenue, burning to death Mrs. Martin Fox and her child, George, two and a half years old. The charred remains of both were found after the fire. Mr. Fox is a hackman and was not at home.

The first fire is supposed to have started in the cellar. The air shaft in the building and the stairs aided the fire in gaining such a headway that there was no successful fighting of the flames, which had gained tremendous headway when the firemen arrived.

The building was occupied by a liquor store on the first floor and on the upper floors by families. When the fire was discovered by a man named Ward the flames were coming out of the hallway. Ward could not enter the hall because of the fire and he ran into the street and threw stones at the windows. There were no fire escapes on the front of the building. Presently Ward saw at the fourth floor window a woman hanging on the ledge, the fire having already invaded her rooms. She proved to be Delia O'Connell.

Her sister was also climbing out of the window and she had already been severely burned and half suffocated by the smoke.

HANGING FROM WINDOWS.

Both women were hanging from the window ledge when a hook and ladder truck came up. The men at once put up scaling and extension ladders and firemen climbed up. At the fourth floor another woman, Mrs. Susan McAdee, 60 years old, was found partly burned and dazed by the smoke, hanging out of a window.

The firemen tied a rope around Mrs. McAdee and let her safely down.

Three firemen caught the O'Connell women in their arms, not an instant too soon. Both were badly burned about the body. By this time more women and men were found at the windows, having been driven out of their rooms by the flames.

RECEIVE APPOINTMENTS.

M. E. Beall, formerly editor of the Fort Wayne Gazette, has received an appointment as translator for the government. The salary is $3,000 a year and Mr. Beall's headquarters will be in Washington.

Amos Walters, the well known grocer, has received notice of his appointment to a position as immigration inspector.

SISTER MELANIA.

Sister Melania, of the Order of Poor Handmaids of Christ, died at St. Joseph hospital Monday evening after an extended illness from consumption. Her age was 34 years, 11 months and 14 days. The deceased was for some years a teacher at St. Paul's school, but abandoned school work two years ago that she might have the benefit of treatment at the hospital. Her father, Joseph Butzel, of Chicago, was notified and arrived last evening.

The funeral services will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday morning at the hospital chapel, Rev. Father Thomas Eisenring, the chaplain, officiating.

SOLD MEAT ON SUNDAY.

The members of the butchers' union are determined to enforce the rule of the union prohibiting the sale of meat on Sunday. Several persons have been reported, but Diederick Brandt didn't profit by a warning and Monday an affidavit was filed in 'Squire France's court charging him with following his usual avocation on Sunday. He was fined $1 and costs.

WILL BE TRIED IN FEBRUARY

TIME OF MRS. HASENFUSS' SECOND TRIAL AGREED UPON.

Mrs. Mattie E. Hasenfuss will be tried the second time at the February term of the circuit court. While no official announcement has been made of the date of trial Judge O'Rourke has talked the matter over with the attorneys in the case and there is an understanding that the case will again come up for trial in February. There will be no change of venue. The same attorneys will prosecute and defend and the second trial promises to be even more warmly contested than the first. The state's officers admit that they have some new evidence, while Mrs. Hasenfuss' attorneys assert that they are certain their client is not guilty.

DISCREET SILENCE

WAR OFFICE WILL NOT DENY OR CONFIRM REPORTS.

THAT BULLER IS OVER RIVER

OR THAT METHUEN'S LINE OF COMMUNICATION IS CUT.

BOTH STORIES ARE FLIMSY

LITTLE NEWS COMES FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

London, Dec. 19.—The war office declines either to confirm or contradict the report telegraphed by a correspondent of the Daily Mail that General Buller has crossed the Tugela river and that General Methuen's communications have been cut.

WILD STORY WAS SCOUTED.

London, Dec. 19.—Only the most optimistic gave any credit to the rumors that General Buller had crossed the Tugela river and even they speedily realized that it was incredible that the war office would refrain from the immediate publication of news of such importance. There is also no confirmation for the statement that General Methuen's line of communication has been cut, though there is a probability of such an event occurring at any moment.

According to the latest news from General Methuen, dated Sunday, Dec. 17, the situation appears to be a complete impasse.

The Boers were gathering reinforcements and extending their fortifications on both his flanks, but it was believed they would be unable to attack the British position. On the other hand, it was regarded as impossible for the British to turn the Boer flank, which was resting on the river to the east and rapidly approaching the river to the west. The Boer lines of intrenchments are continuous and capable of rapid connection at many points. From elsewhere at the front there is absolutely nothing to throw additional light on the situation.

The newspapers are full of stories showing the unanimity with which the volunteers and yeomanry are responding to the call to arms.

Lord Chesam, commanding officer of the Royal Buckinghamshire yeomanry, is to command the force of 3,000 yeomanry which he has been authorized to organize for service in South Africa. Earl Dudley and other titled officers will accompany him.

Some of the papers express considerable misgivings at troops going from India to South Africa. They think the risks too great and that it may lead to two continents being ablaze instead of one.

The most ample recognition is given in the press to the great outburst of loyalty of Canada and the remarks of Sir Wilfred Laurier, the premier, and the cabinet, as representative of both the English and French sections, are specially welcomed.

AUSTRIA MAY MEDIATE.

New York, Dec. 19.—A dispatch to the Herald from Berlin says:

The Berliner Tageblatt is informed that the Austrian government is inclined to offer its mediation in the conflict in South Africa.

It is considered that the diplomatists of Europe, who only a few months ago signed a protocol of the peace conference cannot admit that the present useless loss of life, which can only in the end be in favor of the black population, should continue.

The Berliner Tageblatt, however, considers that mediation would be premature.

Germany at least has for the moment no intention of taking part in any steps of the sort.

DETAILS OF THE BATTLE.

New York, Dec. 19.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says:

At last details of the battle at the Tugela are coming through, but it is very slowly, and the stories are most incomplete.

All the dispatches bear evidence of being severely censored. For instance, General Buller's official report stated that he had lost eleven guns, but the fact has been carefully cut out of every message by the censor, who evidently was in ignorance of what news the war office had given to the public.

We know that General Hart's brigade did actually cross the Tugela, but had to be withdrawn, losing very heavily; that General Hildyard's brigade was also checked and that General Barton's brigade, of whose doings nothing had been heard, failed to carry Inhlawe hill, which is a position on the south side of the Tugela to the west of Colenso. There is no further explanation of the loss of the artillery.

It is said that Colonel Long, who had been much blamed for taking his guns too near the Boers, was probably obliged to do so. In this connection it is pointed out that Colonel Long has the reputation of being a very good officer. We are expressly told the reason, namely, that he was anxious to get within effective range of the enemy.

"It is the old, old story," said an artillery expert. "The officers and gunners of the royal artillery are second to none, but their guns are obsolete."

It is certain that the reverses lately suffered by the British have been for the most part the result of imperfect performance of scouting duties—not merely the general's commanding duties, which are under the direction of the headquarter staff, but of the duties for which the generals commanding brigades, the colonel's commanding battalions and regiments, and the majors and captains commanding batteries and companies are responsible.

The British officer is, as a rule, especially in the early part of a campaign, so keen to get at his work and so eager to join issue at once with the enemy that he is very apt to forget or to hurry over the preliminary precautionary measures.

"So much depends upon Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener that it is to be hoped," says the Daily Mail, "that no further war office red tape and none of the jealousies between generals that are said to exist there will tie the hands of the new chiefs."

LAWTON KILLED.

A THRILLING CAREER.

Major General Henry W. Lawton will go down to history as the "Hero of El Caney." It was Lawton, commanding the Second division of the Fifth army corps before Santiago, who was in the thick of the fighting preceding the capture of San Juan hill. It was a desperate, hard fight, the capture of El Caney, which was possibly the strongest Spanish outpost, and strategically of great importance. Lawton was just the man to lead such an expedition and strike the first blow which was to break the backbone of the Spaniards' defense. How well he succeeded is now a matter of history.

Probably no living officer saw more rough campaigning against hostile Indians than Lawton. In 1876 he was conspicuous in the expeditions against the Sioux, sharing every privation and going into dangers into which he would not send one of his soldiers. He took part against the Ute Indians in Colorado in October, 1879, relinquishing his command to join the expedition.

In the spring of 1886 Lawton, then a captain in the Fourth United States cavalry, was selected by General Miles from all other officers in the army as the one man qualified to lead a picked body of troops into Mexico in pursuit of the murderous Geronimo.

Lawton had the finest command that could be gathered. For three months he led them in pursuit of the savages from one range of mountains to another, sometimes scaling peaks 9,000 to 10,000 feet above the sea level, and then again descending into the depths of the canons where the heat was almost intolerable. During this time Lawton and his command marched 1,396 miles. The country was mostly parched and barren desert. Saltless mule meat and sometimes little of that, was their staple ration.

Lawton one day in San Francisco was induced to tell his own personal story of how he left his command and forged on ahead to overtake the Indians. He told how he had to drop his accoutrements bit by bit, leave off one bit of clothing after another, quit eating and drinking, sleeping and washing and riding. In a vague sort of way it appeared that it was a tough journey; it killed a horse; was pursued on foot for many hot, starving, famishing miles, but the trail of Geronimo was never lost, and there was no sign of any fear of the result of catching up with him. It was one man chasing a band of hostiles, and Lawton thought it added to the comical side of his adventure that signs along the trail showed that the Indians had been drinking. Having studied Indians, he knew they were ugly when drunk, and, like other people, uglier after a debauch. But he kept on, and seemed to be glad the day he spied them in camp in a foul gulch in the mountains.

Lieutenant Lawton dirty, worn out, practically unarmed, walked into the hostile camp.

"Were the Indians surprised?" he was asked.

"They didn't show any emotion," said Lawton.

"What did you say to them?"

"Nothing. I just nodded their fashion and sat down on a log beside Geronimo. He grunted, but we all sat still for a long time. It was a very long time, perhaps half an hour. Then Geronimo said something to the others, who were perhaps trying to make up their minds what to do to me. There was another long pause, then another of them grunted.

"I let them talk. And while they grunted at long intervals and thought hard, I watched the bog we were sitting on the edge of, and tried to see the malaria germs I knew must be rising. After I found I couldn't see the disease I concluded I'd have to wait till I should feel it, and I turned my attention to the fleas that came skipping along off Geronimo and the buck on my other side over to me. They were very friendly and quick.

"By the by Geronimo asked me what I was there for. I told him to take their surrender. He grunted; the others caught his meaning, which was mine, and one by one, as they comprehended, each grunted. Then we all thought a long time. Somebody grunted again, and Geronimo translated it into decent Injun for me. They wanted to know what my terms were. I said I had no terms to offer; just surrender, that was all. Geronimo had started the pipe going, and it came to me, a filthy thing, but I accepted it like the fleas and passed it on, as I would have liked to do with the fleas.

"It took hours to arrange it, but finally Geronimo asked who they were to surrender to. I told him to General Miles. I was glad they were going to surrender, you know, for that would make it safe for me. After I mentioned the general's name they thought a duce of a long time and then parleyed much. But at last Geronimo said that they would go with me to General Miles on condition that they could have a sight of him before deciding; that if after seeing him they wanted to surrender they would, but if they didn't they were to have a chance to get away. I understood what was up and I agreed. So we started for home.

"General Miles put on his uniform and wore his decorations; his staff dressed as if for a ball and wore everything that shone. Then we fixed up the commander's tent, put it in order and covered it with flags, plumes and other uniforms, and the general, stationing himself in the center, his staff placed themselves in a half circle about him. When all was right and all the faces had drawn straight I went to get the Injuns. I led them around from behind a tent so that they came about suddenly on General Miles face to face.

"The Indians topped. They were grouped about Geronimo, and all looked steadily at General Miles. It was a pretty stiff ordeal for the staff, I should judge, but not a man flinched, not one cracked a smile and at last Geronimo grunted to me. "'I surrender,' the sound said. And the others assented in like manner.

ROBBED BY TWO MASKED MEN

ENTERED J. E. CASTLE'S HOME IN THE NIGHT.

Only Mrs. Castle Was at Home—"The" Johnson Tries to Use His Knife.

Monday evening two masked men entered the home of J. E. Castle, of No. 139 Shawnee avenue, and ransacking the premises got away with a watch and 25 cents. Mr. and Mrs. Castle have been married only about a year, the husband being an employe at the Organ factory. About 8 o'clock last evening Mr. Castle left the house to go to a store near by. A few minutes after he left Mrs. Castle, who was sitting with her back toward the door, heard some person enter the room, but supposing it was her husband did not turn around. In a moment a hand was thrown over her mouth and she was in the grasp of a masked man, while another man wearing a mask searched the machine drawer and bureau drawer. The woman could not give an alarm for a minute or two, but she soon broke loose and as the two men hastened from the house she screamed loud enough to be heard by neighbors, who were soon on the premises. She told her story and a search was commenced. Superintendent Gorsline lives a few blocks away and he was called. The search was fruitless, as no persons answering the description of the men could be found. Mrs. Castle told the superintendent that only the watch and a quarter were taken. Superintendent Gorsline notified the police and gave orders that all tramps be arrested. Two strangers were taken into custody, but they satisfied Mayor Scherer that they were honest young men and were released this morning. There is no clue to the desperate fellows.

"THE" JOHNSON'S KNIFE.

After several years of sobriety "The" Johnson yesterday accumulated a fighting jag of booze. He called at Keever's Columbia street saloon and proceeded to carve the proprietor. He did succeed in cutting Mr. Keever's clothing, but did not reach the skin. "The" left the saloon and shortly afterward Officer Borgman met him and escorted him to his home. Johnson turned on the officer with drawn knife and attempted to carve him, but was knocked down and soon landed in the city jail. Mayor Scherer fined him $25 and costs and Johnson will serve thirty-six days in jail.

Chairman Kaough and Secretary Rockhill, of the democratic county central committee, held a conference Monday with other leading democrats and it was decided to issue a call for a mass convention to select delegates to the district convention at Auburn on January 9, at which time a successor to Thomas R. Marshal on the state central committee will be chosen. Heretofore delegates have been chosen by townships and wards, but the campaign begins so early this season and there promises to be no contest for the district chairmanship and the county committee deems it easier to hold a mass convention. The convention will be held in the city hall on Saturday, January 6. Allen county is entitled to forty delegates and they will be apportioned from the several townships and wards, giving to each as near as possible its deserved quota of delegates. The call will be published in the democratic weekly papers this week.

There will be a novel entertainment this evening at the West Creighton avenue Church of Christ. It will be a "Tom Thumb" wedding, in which forty scholars from the Sunday school will take part.

There will be a business meeting of the Young People's association of Bethel Evangelical church this evening.

Royal Baking Powder

Imparts Healthfulness to the Food

Royal Baking Powder possesses peculiar qualities not found in other leavening agents, which arise from the superior fitness, purity and healthfulness of its ingredients.

Royal Baking Powder leavens the food perfectly by its own inherent power without changing or impairing any of the elements of the flour.

Thus the hot-breads, hot-rolls and muffins, and the delicious hot griddle-cakes raised by the Royal Baking Powder are wholesome and digestible, and may be eaten without distress, even by persons of delicate digestion.

Alum baking powders are low priced, as alum costs but two cents a pound; but alum is a corrosive poison and it renders the baking powder dangerous to use in food.

Artistic Plates.

Making perfect fitting Artificial Plates provides work for both artist and artisan. Some dentists tell you the work is nearly or wholly mechanical. Their work will probably begin to disappear as they tell you—and as far short of perfect results. Perfect fit, thorough comfort, durable efficiency and natural appearance are some of the details in which the artist shows his hand. It's just the making of plates that is mechanical. Our plates are artistic—to perfection.

THE QUICK OR THE DEAD.

The democratic party is on the eve of the time when it must choose whether it is of the quick or the dead. It cannot commit itself to an empty and fruitless policy of opposition and be qualified for the race. The country is adjusting itself to new conditions that are here to stay, and the democratic party must recognize these conditions and prepare to deal with them. The nation is expanding and democracy must expand with it. The party must go forward or it will go backward. In the picturesque language of an eminent democratic statesman of Texas, "We've done expanded, and what's the use of the democratic party going down the road hanging onto the shirt-tail of progress hollerin' whoa?" The democratic party has a glorious history, but it is well to have a care that its history is not also its epitaph. A splendid past is properly a source of pride, but a future is more important. Let our light be of the dawn rather than of the fading glow of the sunset.

The coming year will record whether democracy is to serve its splendid mission or become a mere band of defeated and demoralized stragglers. It must open its eyes to the duties that confront it if it is to be an animate part of the body politic with vital functions and the life to perform them. It must take up the live issues of today, not cling to the dead issues of a day that is gone. The propaganda of stubborn obstruction is no part of the doctrine of democracy. No political party can win on the shredded issue of a negative principle. Mere opposition to what the republican party proposes will not bring back the old votes that we have lost, command the new ones that we need, nor, indeed, hold all of those that we count on now. Democracy must have a higher, braver aspiration than to stand like a balky mule with tail to the front braying at destiny and kicking at progress. What is the use of trying to achieve the miracle of resurrection to get an issue when live issues press upon us from all sides? Let us not go this spring to the graveyard for an issue only to totter back next November to lay it away in its old winding-sheet and crawl in to make our bed with it.

A quixotic fight on the new currency measure will be fraught with defeat. That measure will not be condemned by the voters until it is a demonstrated failure. Opposition to expansion will not win. The people of this country will not stultify themselves with the admission that the genius of the republic is unequal to the duty of carrying civilization, progress and liberty to the peoples we have snatched from the cruel arms of tyranny. To make the trusts a secondary issue in the campaign will be to turn away from the highest and most portentious duty that has confronted democracy in half a century. It will be a stupendous struggle between the hosts of the people and the audacious cohorts of intrenched monopoly. If the democratic party does not seize upon this vital issue and carry it to triumph the party will be recreant to its mission, blind to opportunity and indifferent to its fate.

Let us not batter our heads against a wall trying to vindicate a mistake. Error is no precedent and if blundering is a tradition, let us abandon it. Let us write victory, not doom, in our next platform. Democracy must unify if it would win. Success is possible, but with a powerful, confident, intrenched and enormously resourceful antagonist victory will be hard won, and the democratic party will have to muster its full strength and call upon its highest leadership. Let the party have done with fatuous counsels and again give ear to the voice of its own wisdom. The constructive statesmanship of true democracy, and not the obstinacy of an obstructive minority, is what the country requires of the democratic party at this time when its return to power is needed by the people.

FORT WAYNE MEN IN TROUBLE WITH UNCLE SAM.

Amos Pappert and Will F. Niebergall Charged With Violating Revenue Law—Give Bond.

Amos Pappert and Will F. Niebergall, of this city, were arrested this morning by Deputy United States Marshal Rose on a charge of failing to comply with the United States revenue law. They were taken before Thomas J. Logn, United States commissioner, who continued the case until Saturday, Dec. 23, at 1:30 p. m., when the district attorney, J. J. M. Lafollette, of Indianapolis, or one of his assistants, will be present to conduct the prosecution of the case.

Messrs. Pappert and Niebergall were arrested by order of the revenue department and the case is an old one. They were formerly in partnership in the manufacture of cigars in this city and when the war revenue law went into effect July 1, 1898, a tax of $6 per annum was required from manufacturers in this line of business. The firm went out of business fourteen days later, but it is charged that they did business during the intervening two weeks without having paid the special tax, and Uncle Sam is particular about such matters. The penalty for a violation of the revenue act is a fine of not more than $500, to which imprisonment may be added.

Niebergall is now employed as a clerk in a notion store, while Pappert is interested in a cigar factory on East Washington street and a saloon on Harmer street.

JUST SAVED HIS LIFE.

It was a thrilling escape that Charles Davis, of Bowerston, O., lately had from a frightful death. For two years a severe lung trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of consumption. Such wonderful cures have for 25 years proven its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Dreier & Bros.' drug store.

Miss Lola Conover, teacher in the sixth grade of the Holton avenue school, has tendered her resignation, and will retire from school work at the end of the present week. Miss Conover is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Conover, of West Berry street, and has been one of the most successful teachers of the city schools. She was graduated from the Fort Wayne High school in the class of 1893, and has since been continuously engaged in educational work, teaching at the Harmer, Lakeside, West Washington and Holton avenue schools. Miss Conover's ability as an educator is universally recognized, and the retirement of so popular and efficient an instructor will be sincerely regretted.

An Old Theory Exploded

Food not Digested in the Stomach.

This Organ only Prepares it for Assimilation by the Intestines.

Until a few months ago the medical profession, as well as the public at large, have always believed that food was digested in the stomach; but thanks to science, they are now enabled to follow the whole process of digestion with their own eyes from the moment food enters the mouth until it is taken into the system, or carried off through the bowels. Heretofore all remedies for the cure of dyspepsia have been given with the idea of assisting the stomach to digest food, and the discovery that this organ does not digest it at all explains the cause of their failure to cure the disease, and its constant increase in spite of the thousand and one remedies used. Another and equally important discovery was also made; that there are three distinct kinds of dyspepsia, two of which require different remedies, and the remedy for one must be exactly opposite to that of the other in character. For instance, acid dyspepsia requires an alkaline treatment; indigestion an acid treatment; these combined and given in one dose neutralize each other, consequently, cannot be given together with effect. The third and most dangerous of all, (intestinal dyspepsia) requires a germicide which must be harmless, and yet strong enough to destroy the bacilli which cause the disease. Understanding this and knowing that they possess the only germicide which can be taken internally without injury, (Hyomei) the R. T. Booth Company have placed on the market a dyspepsia cure, and the only one made which treats every phase of the disease separately. That it has been a success is shown by the fact that they guarantee it; something never done before, and agree to return the money if a cure is not effected. Send symptoms and receive free treatment.

PRICES OF STOCKS GO UP IN THE SPECIALTIES.

New York, Dec. 19.—At a meeting of the clearing house committee today a second subscription of $10,000,000 was made up for lending in the stock market.

New York, Dec. 19.—All roads led to Wall street this morning. Beside the usual throngs of brokers, bankers, clerks and regular frequenters of the financial district, the elevated trains, surface cars, ferries and private conveyances brought their addition of curiosity seekers of all conditions and both sexes.

Some had interests at stake and were on hand to watch news and developments, but the majority were present simply as sight-seers. The galleries of the exchange were filled to their utmost.

The measures already taken for relief of the money market and other measures projected, including the expressed intention of the secretary of the treasury to increase the government deposits with national banks, had their effect in allaying apprehension. The sharp recovery in prices of some leading American stocks on the London exchange this morning contributed to the same effect. The feeling was, nevertheless, feverish and apprehensive. The advance in the Imperial Bank of Germany's rate of discount from 6 to 7 per cent. and the 8 per cent. discount rate in Berlin caused uneasiness not only on their own account, but because they probably foreshadowed further advances in the Bank of England's rate and resulting pressure on New York.

The brokers on the floor were in a state of wild excitement and the turmoil as the signal sounded for the opening was indescribable. It was impossible to detect any intelligible transactions from the standpoint of outside observation, but experts whose business it is to follow transactions kept the tape supplied with quotations. Some very heavy orders were executed, both for buying and selling account. The course of the market rose and flowed many times in the course of the first hour and at times wildly irregular, prices mounting buoyantly at some points, while breaking anew at other points. Those who had set themselves the task of supporting the market evidently had their hands full and had to absorb a seemingly unending stream of offerings of large blocks.

The powerful financial interests whose efforts it was to sustain and advance prices found important assistance from investment buying on a large scale; which was particularly manifest in the bond department.

Buyers of this class displayed no interest in sustaining prices, and any considerable recovery in prices caused a falling off of about a point decline and a succeeding upturn being in force. The buying by bears to cover shorts was also in large volume at such times.

The avalanche of selling orders was so steadily absorbed that the Standard railroad stocks began to afford a point of resistance to decline. There were exceptions here and there and Metropolitan, Sugar, People's Gas and some of the Steel stocks kept breaking through the line like a powerful foot ball player trying for a goal.

Early in the second hour there appeared an appreciable decrease in activity and the pressure was no longer so severe.

Some of the points of weakness in the second hour were the Coalers, which dropped 1 to 2½, Louisville 1, Norfolk and Western preferred 1¾, a group of the Iron and Steel stocks, including Federal Steel, American Hoop, Smelting and National Steel 1 to 2½, Missouri Pacific 3 and People's Gas 4½. Towards noon it became known that the clearing house banks had agreed to provide an additional $10,000,000 to lend in the market at the market rate and the whole market surged upward to above the opening level.

The rally extended from 1 to 6½ points. The changes in bonds were exceedingly irregular, the demand advancing prices sharply at some points while at others weakness was shown.

The first quotations quickly demonstrated a violent speculative conflict. Immense buying orders had been distributed for the support of prices.

The opening showed some gains in consequence extending from 1 to 5 points in a number of important specialties, including Tennessee Coal, Sugar, Leather preferred, Cotinental Tobacco and Metropolitan Street Railway of 4 to 5 points and the Standard railroad stocks, the most conspicuous gains being in New York Central, St. Paul, Southern, Rock Island and Union Pacific. These advances were met, however, with a flood of selling orders, which quickly drove prices downwards. Sugar, St. Paul, Continental Tobacco, Metropolitan Street Railway and Union Pacific fell back from 1 to 4 points. A number of important stocks fell at the opening, including Federal Steel, American Tobacco, Pennsylvania and Missouri Pacific, which showed losses of 1 to 2 points.

Violent irregularity was evident in Brooklyn Transit, which vibrated within a range of about 3 points below last night's level. Tobacco rallied 4 points from its opening loss, but yielded again. A reacting tendency became general after the first few minutes of trading.

Speculation was very feverish, but there was an undertone of strength manifest throughout by the dividend paying railroads. The downward rush after the high opening forced prices down anywhere from 2 to 7 points, Metropolitan Street Railway leading. Good buying then appeared and prices bounded upwards, American Tobacco recovering 9. There were many conspicuously weak points, industrial specialties lacking support and giving way frequently. In the minor railway stocks special groups forged steadily downward, notably the Southwesterns and the Bituminous Coal shares. Hocking Valley sagged 3½. At 11 o'clock the market, while quieter, was very unsettled, but generally speaking the Internationals and Grangers were fairly well held, while the Industrial shares, except for a few of the high-priced leaders, were being hammered energetically.

It became manifest as the day progressed that the pressure of liquidation was over. Additional supplies of money coming into the market forced the rate down to 5 per cent. and the prices of stocks began to move upwards buoyantly. Something like a panic among the bears developed, and in the eagerness to buy they bid up prices frantically on themselves. A throng of bargain-hunters, who had been eagerly watching for a turn in the market absorbed large blocks of the standard railroads today.

The rebound in the speculative specialties was the most pronounced, Consolidated Gas rising 15 points, Continental Tobacco preferred 10, Continental Tobacco common 5½, Metropolitan, American Tobacco 8, Pressed Steel Car preferred and People's Gas 7 each.

The market became very animated on the advance and the strength permented all departments of the list and was well maintained to the close. At 2:30 o'clock the statement was made that the government had made deposits in depository banks aggregating $7,000,000. Of this amount the National City bank received $5,000,000, which was loaned on the stock exchange at 6 per cent.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Failure of the Liverpool market to respond to the advance of 1¾c here yesterday was a weakening factor in the wheat market here today. May opened 3/4 @7/8c lower at 70½@70⅝c. Yesterday's buyers were sellers at the opening. The buying was largely against puts under which the market opened and this influence checked further decline for some time, holding May at 70⅝@70¼c. Trading was not active. Local receipts were 70 cars, 3 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 273 cars, against 462 last week and 785 a year ago.

Corn was weak with wheat, May opening ¼@⅜c down at 33@33⅛c. Longs and elevator people were the principal sellers, scalpers buying. The market sold off to 32⅞@33c, where it steadied with wheat. Receipts here were 514 cars.

Later the market became heavy and dull. Bradstreet's report of a decrease of 1,297,000 bushels caused only a slight upward movement and the close was nearly at bottom prices. May ⅛@1c under yesterday at 70⅛@70¼c.

Oats were dull, opening easier with other grains. May ⅛c down at 24⅛@24¼c. Local receipts were 264 cars.

Provisions were less animated than has been the rule lately. Initial prices were under yesterday with lower prices at the yards and a liberal supply of hogs. Realizing was only scattered, the investment and outside demand fair and on the decline the market steadied. May pork opened 5@7½c down at $10.25@10.27½; May lard 2½@5c lower at $5.35@5.37½; selling off to $5.32½, and May ribs 2½c lower at $5.40@5.42½, easing off early to $5 37½.

Hogs—Receipts today, 40,000; tomorrow, 40,000; left over, 3,018. Market 2½@5c lower. Mixed and butchers, $3.90@4.15; good heavy, $4.00@4.15; rough heavy, $3.85@3.95; light, $3.90@4.10; bulk of sales, $4.00@4.10.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Dec., 66½c; May, 70⅝c; July, 70⅜c.

Corn—Dec., 30⅜c; Jan., 30⅛@30¾c; May, 32⅝@32¾c; July, 33⅛c.

Oats—Dec., 22¼c; May, 24⅛c.

CELEBRATE AN ANNIVERSARY.

The seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of J. F. W. Meyer, the pioneer druggist and widely known business man, is being observed today in a thoroughly enjoyable family gathering at his residence. Years weigh lightly upon Mr. Meyer, and he is able to enter heartily into the spirit of the day. Three sons of Mr. Meyer, Gottlieb, Will and Theodore Meyer, arrived this morning from St. Louis to participate in the gathering. Their coming was a surprise to the father, and their presence adds materially to the enjoyment of the day. Save for a few intimate friends, only members of the family are present, and an elaborate dinner will be served at 6 o'clock.

A SMALL BLAZE.

An alarm of fire at 12:30 this morning called the department to the Model Steam bakery, on Maumee avenue, where the roof had caught from a stovepipe, and had probably been smouldering for several hours. The building is owned by Louis Scherer and the damage is but $10.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, Dec. 19.—Money on call 25 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5½@6 per cent; sterling exchange easier with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.87¼@4.87⅝ for demand and at $4.81@4.81½ for 60 days; posted rates, $4.82½ and $4.88½; commercial bills, $4.80½@4.81; silver certificates, 59@59⅛c; bar silver, 59½c; Mexican dollars, 47½c.

HOLIDAY RATES.

The Wabash will make the customary rates for the holidays. Tickets on sale December 23, 24, 25, 30 and 31, 1899, and January 1st, 1900. All tickets good returning up to and including January 2nd.

VETERANS OF SPANISH WAR

WILL HAVE AN ORGANIATION IN FORT WAYNE.

Movement Now on Foot to Organize a Camp is Meeting With Good Success.

The newer veterans—the veterans of the war with Spain—are organizing a society similar in intent and purpose to the G. A. R. and the U. V. L., and it is expected that within a short time a camp of the new society will be organized in Fort Wayne.

Lieutenant Thompson, Benoit Elert and a number of others who were in the service are interesting themselves in the matter and already about thirty young men have signified their willingness to unite with a local camp in Fort Wayne. As soon as the number reaches a list sufficient to make a substantial camp a meeting will be called and application made for a charter. The society is known as the Spanish-American War Veterans' association, and all who served against Spain in any branch of the United States service and now have an honorable discharge are eligible to membership.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, back ache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. J. W. Gardner, of Idaville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and good appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Dreier & Bros.' drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

FORT WAYNE CANDIDATE.

Dr. W. M. Enslen, of this city, is a candidate for a position as one of the lay delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, to be held in Chicago next May. The north Indiana conference, which meets at Elkhart early in the spring, will select five delegates to the Chicago body.

NEW VOTING MACHINE.

Charles Simon, residing at Swan, a little village north of this city on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, has secured a patent on an improved voting machine. The invention consists of several series of keys, which bear the names of the candidates, and a set of registering wheels. The voter simply presses with his finger the names which appear on the keys instead of stamping them with rubber stamps, as is the custom under the Australian system. W. G. Burns, the patent attorney of this city, secured the patent.

A KEEN CLEAR BRAIN.

PROVE ALL THINGS.

This Old, Old Command is Easy to Fulfill in Fort Wayne.

To win a wager an Englishman-quis stood on London bridge and offered for an hour British sovereigns ($5) for five shillings ($1.25). He could not find a customer. There are several good reasons why the ordinary mortal could not be induced to buy, but no reason can be given why Fort Wayne people will not accept the following convincing proof about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this:

Miss Harriet Walters, of 104 East Wayne street, says: "You can say for me that I was greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, and highly recommend them. I had kidney trouble for a number of years. I suffered greatly from pains across the small of my back and from dizziness, but as soon as I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills I felt better. I only took one box, but I can truly say that I was in better health when I finished it than I had been before in a long time and my kidneys ceased troubling me. I am sure others suffering in a similar manner will not be disappointed if they give this valuable remedy a fair trial."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

No Lady Would Do Such a Thing.

No lady would take her watch when out of order, to the first person who displayed the sign "Watches Regulated and Repaired." But she would carefully enquire for a man whose acknowledged skill entitled him to take in charge the delicate mechanism.

How much more careful should a woman be, when she herself is disordered, not to entrust the delicate and complex mechanism of her being to the first man or woman who displays the sign "Medical Advice Given." No sign is to be trusted which says "Medical Advice Given" and stops there. Medical advice can be given only by a physician. An accredited physician will put his title with his name. Suppose a sign reads, "Medical Advice Given by a Man." What woman would not instantly say, "The fact of being a man doesn't qualify him to give medical advice. He must be a physician to do that." But suppose the sign reads: "Medical Advice Given by a Woman." Is not the fact just as patent that being a woman does not qualify her to give medical advice. The woman must be a physician to do that. Medical advice given by an unskilled woman is just as dangerous as if given by an unskilled man.

In inviting sick and ailing woman to consult him by letter without charge, Dr. Pierce points to an experience and practice of over thirty years, devoted specially to diseases peculiar to women. In that time Dr. Pierce and his associate staff of medical specialists have successfully treated more than half a million women. All correspondence is treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Letters are promptly answered, and the answers are mailed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing upon them. Write without fee and without fear to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

WABASH BRAKEMAN VICTIM OF AN ACCIDENT.

FELL FROM CAR AT DEFIANCE

AND THE WHEELS PASSED OVER HIM.

SEVERAL OTHER ACCIDENTS

PETER WELSH SUSTAINS MOST PAINFUL WOUNDS.

E. V. Pier is a cripple for life, having lost a foot in an accident at Defiance, Ohio, at noon yesterday. He is a brakeman in the employ of the Wabash and was working on the Fort Wayne and Toledo local freight temporarily, the regular brakeman being sick. While the train was passing through Defiance Mr. Pier fell from it when he attempted to step from one car to another and the wheels caught and crushed his left foot. The company's surgeon at that city amputated the injured member and the unfortunate brakeman was taken to Peru, where he now occupies a cot in the railway hospital. Mr. Pier is a stranger on this end of the road, his regular place being on a run out of Peru over the Eel River line.

UNFORTUNATE BOILERMAKER.

Peter Welsh was most painfully injured at the noon hour yesterday at the Pittsburg shops, where he is employed in the boiler department. He was en route from the machine to the boiler shop, walking on the stone which forms the top of the wall surrounding the transfer table in the court between the machine and boiler shops, when his foot slipped and he plunged headforemost into the pit, striking one of the steel rails. The upper lip was cut the full width of the mouth, exposing to view the teeth and gums, and he was bruised about the head, arms and body. Mr. Welsh was taken to St. Joseph hospital, where Dr. C. B. Stemen attended him, being compelled to take half a dozen stitches in closing the gaping wound. He will be disabled for two or three weeks at least.

BECOMES A ROUTE AGENT.

James Humphrey, whose resignation as tie inspector of the Pennsylvania was briefly noted in yesterday's Sentinel, is now out on his first trip as route agent for Uncle Sam, a position he occupied prior to becoming tie inspector. He has been assigned to a run between Toledo and Bement, on the Wabash road. Mr. Humphrey is an expert in distributing mail and his long rest from that kind of employment has not in the least effected his efficiency in that line. His successor in the railway service has not yet been named.

SEVERAL UNLUCKY MEN.

James Fulford, who had a foot crushed several months ago, is now afflicted in a more serious manner. His left arm is partially paralyzed from the use of a crutch in walking and despite the most skilled treatment, remains almost useless. It threatens more lasting disability than that produced by the accident to his foot, which has now nearly recovered. Mr. Fulford is employed in the Pittsburg shops when able to work and is one of the most popular men in that establishment.

William Bartley and Jacob Ench, switchmen employed in the Pennsylvania yards, will be off duty awhile. Each met with an accident yesterday, the former having a foot sprained and the latter his back sprained. The injuries were caused by falling from cars. Neither injury will permanently cripple the unfortunate one.

CLOSED THE ENGINE DEAL.

J. E. Noble has returned from Chicago, where he closed the engine deal mentioned in The Sentinel a few days ago. Instead of three engines, there are five—two pair and one single high pressure machines. They were sold to the Inland Steel company for rolling mills at Buffalo, N. Y. The deal also includes the sale of 50,000 pounds of rope transmission pulleys. The Inland Steel company knows a good thing and is consequently a good customer of the Boss works. This is only one of several similar deals between the two firms.

MORE PROMOTIONS SOON.

Road Foreman C. R. Colmey said this morning that he would soon advance several more men from firemen to engineers, though his force is nearly complete. The company is in pretty good shape for business at present, having nearly all the power and men needed to move freight as rapidly as it arrives at the various shipping points on the line. No serious blockade, such as occurred last winter, is apprehended.

BUSY CAR BUILDERS.

There is no apparent diminuition of work in the east car shops and those engaged in car work out there are working eleven hours per day. There are now 318 men employed in that shop at this kind of work, which, added to the machine operators and blacksmiths engaged in car work down town, will make the total number little short of 600. The machinists, boilermakers and others employed in the locomotive department about equal in number the men employed in the car department, making the largest force of workmen ever employed in the mechanical department of the Pittsburg at this point.

ENFORCING DEMURRAGE RULES.

A strict enforcement of demurrage rules was the cause of a coal famine at Alton, Ill., last week. Local dealers were in the habit of using Illinois Central coal cars for bins, from which they would take the coal just as it was needed for delivery to customers, often holding a car two or three weeks. The railway company became tired of this manner of using their cars and stopped it. The coal dealers who were not provided with proper bins had no place to store their fuel and the famine followed and continued for two days.

CAR BUILDING SOUTH.

Car building, which until a few years ago, was an exclusive northern industry, is becoming quite an important industry in the southern states where the material for building is more plentiful than in the north. Anniston, Ala., has a car shop that can turn out twenty complete cars a day, and it has about all the business it can handle. The Southern Railway company is one of the best customers of the Anniston car works and only last week placed an order with that establishment for 700 gondolas.

THEE KUCHER PROMOTED.

Theodore N. Kucher has been appointed master mechanic of the central shops of the Toledo, Peoria and Western road, with headquarters at Peoria. Mr. Kucher is a Fort Wayne boy and learned the machinist's trade in the Pennsylvania shops in this city. He has served the company in various capacities since leaving his apprenticeship and has been known to be in line for promotion for several years. Lately he has been assistant master mechanic at the Allegheny shops of the company.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

H. Little and J. Wilhelm, of the Pittsburg shops, are sick.

R. N. Eighme and F. M. Jamey, Pittsburg firemen, are sick and off duty.

F. P. Sherbondy, machinist at the Pittsburg shops, is much improved in health and will soon be able to resume work.

J. H. June, of the Union Pacific, and F. P. Wine, of the Burlington, traveling passenger agents, were in the city today.

George Marsh, general manager of the Chicago and Alton, who retires on January 1, has held that position seventeen years.

Official notice is given that on January 1 the piece work system will be put in operation at all the shops on the Santa Fe system.

Acting Claim Agent H. T. Swegman, of the Pittsburg, has returned from Delphi, where he was his mother's guest over Sunday.

Cornell Morganthaler went to Columbia City this morning to look after some business matters for the Fort Wayne Electric company.

John Hallisey, a Wabash boilermaker, who was sent to Peru a few days ago to do some work, was taken sick and had to return home.

William Zimmerman, the boilermaker, has returned home after a ten days' stay at Delray in the interest of the Wabash company.

Machinist G. S. Kramer and his wife will be the guests of friends in Huntington during the holidays. Mr. Kramer is a Wabash employe.

Blacksmith George E. Smith, of the Wabash shops, his wife and two children have gone to Springfield, Ill., to visit his parents until after the holidays.

John Waggerman is at his post of duty again in the Bass works, after a week's absence on account of sickness. He is employed in the machine room.

Machinist William Tagtmeyer has resumed his duties in the Wabash shops. He was in the Springfield hospital several days, having an injured eye treated.

Steps are being taken to more closely ally the interests of the Baltimore and Ohio and the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, and it is thought will end in a consolidation of the lines.

Wabash car inspectors have taken up a stray dog—a spotted hound—which they found wandering around the railway grounds. They are now looking for the owner.

Machinist John Wood, who was kept from his work in the Bass shops two or three days on account of the sickness of his wife, reported this morning. The lady is much better.

David Davis, who has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania forty years, was buried at Pittsburg on Saturday. For years past he was superintendent of the paint shops at that point. He was a member of the Veterans' association and one of the organizers of the railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian association.

The Pennsylvania company will double track its Toledo division for three miles out of that city. This branch of the system has been a very important one and will be kept up to the standard.

Agent Kirkland, of the Pittsburg, will soon temporarily vacate his present offices and will occupy rooms in the east end of the depot building until the work of remodeling the old freight office is accomplished.

Many shopmen laid off today to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. James Madden. Among the number are Messrs. P. J. Singleton, Michael Kelliher, Dennis O'Connor and P. L. Lordier, of the machine shop.

A portion of the fund realized by the recent increase of capital stock of the Pennsylvania, it is said, will be used in double-tracking that portion of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road that is now a single track.

Like the Pennsylvania, the Big Four paid out the greatest amount in wages for November of any previous November in the history of the company. Trainmen made a larger mileage and shopmen worked overtime the entire month.

James Calkins, foreman of the Lake Shore round house at Air Line Junction, Ohio, has been appointed engine dispatcher at the Elkhart office, which controls all the engines west of Toledo, and is succeeded by Charles E. Houghton, traveling engineer of the Cleveland and Toledo division.

An eastern financial paper says that the annual report of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, which will be issued in March, will show that the Pennsylvania has a considerable holding in stock of the Baltimore and Ohio, and will in the future have something to say in relation to the policy of the Baltimore and Ohio.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

NO MATTER WHICH SIDE.

Patterson's new vest, called the "Vestwo," is the talk of the town. It's a handsome vest for anyone. It's a handy vest for a man who has tarried a little too long at the wine cup, because it does not make any difference which side he has outside. The right side looks just as well as the other side, so it does not make any difference which side he wears outside, but if you will come inside we will show you both sides and besides we have "Oxford" mufflers with two sides, so that you can wear the inside outside.
